Big Crowds Attend The Country Fair at Irvington

Glorious Sunshine, Community Spirit and all That's Splendid Made a Great Fair---Fine Line Stock Shows---Farm Displays and Other Attractions

Crying as if their hearts would break because they could not go to the Country Fair, two curly-headed tots of Irvington hung over the fence and looked with longing eyes at the parade. Everybody else was going and it seemed everybody for miles around did come. The crowd was much larger than last year's. Both Friday and Saturday the weather was ideal and the show could not be equalled. The people certainly had a good time and Mr. Caramody, of the State University, said he had been to thirty fairs this year but had not seen such a spirit manifested. The whole atmosphere was charged with hospitality. "Come to see me sometime," "Come go home with us," "Can't you stay over Sunday," were the words heard a thousand times on the streets, at the fair and on the train.

Mr. W. B. Carter, secretary, and Mr. J. B. Gibson, president, assisted by their committees, had every minute crowded and the programs of both days were carried out without a hitch. The baby show took place Friday and all the mothers had a right to be proud, not withstanding there was only one blue ribbon awarded.

THE PARADE SATURDAY

The parade opened Saturday's program. Mr. George Lyddan, on horseback, carried a large flag and was followed by the brass band. The young women on horseback were very attractive, decorated with red, white and blue. The first two carried a large banner with the inscription: "Country Fair, Community Uplift and Scientific Farming." Those who rode were: Misses Ora Hendrick, Angie Gibson, Mary Gibson, Julia Lyons, Essie Kendall, Lottie Bandy, Ruth Norton, Ossie Payne, Myrtle Lyddan, Mrs. D. C. Heron, Messrs. Wilburn Dowell, Hubert Livers and George Lyddan.

DRIVING IN BUGGIES

Mr. Wilbur Parks and Miss Sue Bandy; the buggy and horse were decorated in yellow and blue.

Mr. John Galloway and Miss Brownfield; the decorations of the buggy were in purple and yellow crepe paper.

Mr. Don Lyddan and Miss Mayme

Kendall; Mr. Lyddan's buggy and horse took the red ribbon and the decorations were red, white and blue, the latter being light blue, which were bright and beautiful.

Driving in the blue ribbon buggy were Mrs. Lonnie Dowell and Mrs. Charlie Hawes. The country fair idea which they carried out won the first prize for them. Their horse and buggy were gracefully decorated in asparagus and golden rod, with the American flag in evidence.

THE AUTOMOBILES

Dr. A. A. Baxter's machine was in purple and white. With Mr. Brandt driving were Miss Baxter and the Misses Hayden.

Mr. W. J. Piggott's machine also carried out the country fair idea and was abundantly decorated with golden rod. Although Mr. Piggott is thoroughly English, his machine was not only laden with golden rod, but carried several American flags; it was beautiful and won the second prize. In Mr. Piggott's machine were Miss Eliza Piggott, Mr. W. R. Hensley, Miss Mary Heron, Mr. Caramody and Mrs. Nora Board.

The automobile of Mr. Ed. Alexander carried off the blue ribbon. It represented a float of American beauty roses and was artistically arranged. Every detail of the decorations showed thought and excellent taste. In this first prize auto were Mr. Hubert Lyons, Mary Alexander, Gillie Dowell and Miss Crowder.

Mr. Sam Dowell received the first prize for the handsomest carriage.

Mrs. Nora Board and Mr. W. J. Piggott got the blue ribbon for the best looking couple, while Miss Argie Gibson and Miss Mary Gibson received the red ribbon.

The judges of the parade and the beauty contest were Mr. Hendrick and Mr. T. R. Bryant, of the State University, and Miss Louise Babbage and Miss Mildred Babbage.

DISPLAYS AT THE FAIR

The different displays were held in the large tobacco house. It was well arranged with the floral booth, needlework, farm displays, fruit and dairy exhibits, poultry and agricultural displays and the doll booths. The displays were magnificent and 54 varieties of canned goods were shown.

SHOW WINDOWS ATTRACT

Down in town the show windows attracted a great deal of interest. They displayed the large and various line of goods carried by the merchants of Irvington. Every store was busy on both of these days. Mrs. Payne, the popular milliner, sold twenty hats in two hours Saturday morning; Mrs. Payne knows how to buy, make and sell hats that please. The banks and all the businessmen extended cordial greetings to every stranger.

No one left Irvington without an invitation to come back next year.

FRENZY OF BATTLE IS UNABATED

Never Was Such Hate Shown.

FURY OF DESPERATION

For Fifteen Days the Nations Have Raged.

NO DECISIVE ENGAGEMENT

Battle of the Four Rivers Continues a "Draw."

Geneva special: It is stated here that Emperor William is ill with inflammation of the lungs, the result of his falling into a trench filled with water.

Paris special: The Germans, with unprecedented violence, attacked all along the battle line Sunday in probably a final effort to save the army of General Von Kluck and prevent a general withdrawal from France. There can be no doubt that the Kaiser, disturbed by delay, commanded such a furious widespread attack as might shatter the allied line and open the way to Paris. But Berlin is again disappointed.

The mighty stroke, launched with immense numbers and aimed with incredible fury, failed as it failed on past days. The Germans are once more in their trenches, after giving ground slightly between the Oise and the Somme. They lost prisoners, flags and guns and the spirit of the allied troops is as unbroken as their ranks.

At the center, near Rheims, the Germans launched a determined blow at the allies, but were thrown back near the fort of Nogent L'Abbesse. Farther eastward, toward the Argonne, they gained ground, but were obliged to surrender it. Along the Meuse their position improved, but they have not broken through the barrier of Verdun-Toul-Nancy. There have been no decisive engagements in Lorraine, Alsace, or the Vosges.

Never Such a Battle.

The latest government report contains the assurance that the allies' flanking movement is vigorous in spite of increased German resistance, and that the severest fighting is now with the bayonet. Germans and allies have been struggling back and forth over the same ground and the loss of life is frightful. The allies' center holds, while the right strives to clinch victory. Adequate understanding of the battle of the Aisne, now in its fifteenth day, is impossible. One is bankrupt of superlatives. Such endurance, valor and determination never before was seen on any field of battle. Combats of greater violence than Austerlitz or Leipzig are incidents of this drastic struggle. The most reassuring news received from the front is that the allies have not been forced to abandon the great flanking movement designed to envelop the German right wing or compel its rapid retreat. Sunday and Saturday, while the artillery of each side was operated incessantly, allies and Germans met between the trenches in face to face fighting. There have been a succession of bayonet charges. Trenches a few hundred yards apart were taken and retaken and the loss of life was staggering.

Peril of German Situation.

From government reports and military opinion, it is certain that the allies have not relaxed their determined flanking movement and that the danger of the German armies is greater than ever. The fact that they have tried desperately to keep in motion an offensive movement all along the line indicates to critics here the peril of their situation.

There is undoubtedly a large independent force of English and French striking at German communications with Belgium. Cavalry from this army is raiding railroad lines and seizing supply trains. A column from the extreme left of the allies is swinging slowly around the massed German right, attempting a stroke at towns guarding communications, but unable to press an offensive until the weight of the flanking force tells more heavily.

The Germans generally continue to PRESIDENT ASKS NATION TO PRAY ON OCT. 4 FOR PEACE.

President Wilson has signed a proclamation appointing Oct. 4 a national day of prayer for peace in Europe. The proclamation follows:

Whereas, Great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statesmen have not been able to save from the terrible sacrifice; and

Whereas, In this as in all things it is our privilege and duty to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things; and

Whereas, It is the especial wish and longing of the people of the United States, in prayer and counsel and all friendliness, to serve the cause of peace;

Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the 4th day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication, and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God, that overruling the counsel of men, settling straight the things they cannot govern or alter, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in his mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none, he vouchsafe his children to heal again and restore once more that concord among men and nations without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world; praying also to this end that he forgive us our sins, our ignorance of his holy will, our willfulness and many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsels that purge and make wise.

lose ground and nothing have a decisive victory at their right or center can save them from disaster. Most important of all, the government points out that the fighting spirit of the allies is more marked daily. The colonial troops and reserves are holding their own with first line forces. These are the opinions of military critics that support public optimism.

"I knew you were coming tonight to call on my sister," said dear little Jimmy.

"How did you know?" inquired Mr. Nevergo.

"Because sis has been asleep all the afternoon."

Residence Burns.

Saturday night about 9 o'clock fire was discovered in the residence of Bill Moorman, colored, residing on Bishop Hill, and in a short time the building was entirely consumed. A defective flue was the cause of the blaze.

Mrs. William H. Pate, of Blair Neb, left for her home Monday night after a visit to Mrs. Lon Wood, Mrs. O. B. Mattingly and others over the county. She had a pleasant visit and her friends wish her a safe journey.

STATE WORKER SPEAKS SUNDAY

J. J. Gentry Delivers Excellent Talks to Cloverport Baptist Sunday School--Many Inspired For Greater Service.

FINE PROMOTION EXERCISES.

Promotion day exercises were observed by the largest Sunday School in Breckenridge county Sunday at the Baptist church in this city. The pupils showed remarkable training as the result of sincere and unflagging work of the teachers. The report of the year was given showing an average attendance of 115 and a total collection amounting to more than $300.

The Rev. J. J. Gentry, State worker for the Baptist Sunday Schools of Kentucky, was highly pleased with the Cloverport Sunday School and gave them many helpful points. "Ask a man 58 times to come to Sunday School," said Mr. Gentry, "and you will get him."

Sunday night his address was in the interest of men and boys and how to win them for Christ.

Tell Your Boy You Are Proud of Him

"Tell your boy you are proud of him," said Mr. Gentry, speaking of one night when he threw his arms around his seventeen-year old boy and kissed him, and his son said back to him, "I am proud of my dad too."

Mr. Gentry said there was so much love in a man's soul that never gets stirred up, and fathers and sons should never get too old to still kiss goodnight. He spoke against tobacco, and no one feels that he can grow, buy or sell the stuff after hearing him; along with it he stood for temperance, and had the assurance the day would come when Kentucky would be dry.

Beautiful Prayer Offered

Mr. Gentry prayed at the opening of the service a beautiful prayer for help and forgiveness. "Help us to put away our worries and cares, help us to put away our feelings and forgive us for dragging them around so others might step on them." Thus he asked God to help all who had the pleasure of being present at church Sunday night.

Methodist Appointments.

Cloverport people are delighted to have as their Methodist minister again the Rev. W. C. Frank and Mrs. Frank. They are happy to be back again and a great year is expected. The Rev. J. T. Rushing is the presiding elder.

U. women of this place since her coming to Cloverport.

STATE-WIDE

Prohibition Wins By 35,000 in Virginia --- Even Distilleries Will Be Closed in Nov. 1916.

A sweeping victory was won in Virginia at the polls Tuesday when the State-wide prohibition forces carried the State by a majority of 32,825 votes. The cities, which were expected to roll up big majorities for the saloons, gave 1,315 majority for the dries. Only four cities—Alexandria, Norfolk, Williamsburg and Richmond—returned majorities for the wets.

The vote was taken under an act of the last Legislature and will become effective on and after November 1, 1916. Both the manufacture and sale of liquors will be prohibited in the State after that date. West Virginia became dry only a short time ago.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I advised the 'boys' when they enlisted for the Spanish war to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with them, and have received many thanks for the advice given," writes J. H. Houghland, Eldon, Iowa. "No person whether traveling or at home should be without this great remedy." For sale by all dealers.

At French Camp.

Mrs. Ernest Carson is at home again at The Maples, after a visit of several days to French Camp, where, at the academy there, she left her only son, Percv, for his first year at school away from his devoted parents and the uncle whose name he bears, his father's twin brother.

In this devoted little family circle the lad is the idolized one, and he will doubtless find it pretty hard at first to do without his accustomed pleasures. But he and those who love him will be always glad they determined to send the boy to so wholesome a place in which he can grow and mature physically and mentally and spiritually, as he will under the care of the able men in charge.—Jackson Daily News.

STRAIGHTFORWARD TESTIMONY

Many Cloverport Citizens Have Profited by It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. These are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments—are endorsed by over 30,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy—have proved its merit in many tests. Cloverport readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Cloverport citizen.

L. V. Chapin, Cloverport, Ky., says: "I was in bad shape with kidney trouble. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended, I went to Fisher's drug store and got a box. One box cured me. I have had no need of a kidney medicine since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Chapin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Wind and the Sun.

Wind does not always go down with the sun, but may blow from high to low after sunset. If wind starts to fill up a low pressure area before sunset it is liable to keep pouring in until it is filled and equilibrium restored. If wind stops exactly at instant of sunset one may rest assured that the area of barometrical depression is filled. If wind blows from sea to land by day it may stop at sunset and reverse direction. If it does the cause is that at sunrise the sun's radiant energy heats the land more than it does the water. The land warms the air, increases its rarity, and it rises, producing a lower pressure area, and cooler air from over the ocean rushes in to fill it. After sunset land cools in less time than the water, and the direction of flow is reversed. But this may not always occur. Local causes, as fog, saturation of air, electrical conditions and others may prevent.—New York Journal.

Sometimes Happens So.

The family had gone off for their holiday in a taxi. Twenty minutes later the taxi snorted back up the road.

"Forgotten the tickets?" cried a neighbor.

"No," said the irate householder, "but my wife's just remembered that she's left a kettle boiling on the gas stove."

He dived into the house and came back the next moment with a ghastly calm on his face.

"All right now?" said the neighbor cheerily.

"Right! I'd forgotten that I'd turned the gas off at the meter, and now we've two hours and a half to wait for the next train."—Glasgow Dispatch.

Father of the Dreadnought.

To the late Admiral Cuniberti, member of the Italian naval engineering staff, is due the credit of having suggested the modern Dreadnought. It was he, also, who suggested the modern type of scout, and he was one of the first to study the question of the application of liquid fuel to marine boilers. It was his influence which led to the adoption of this fuel in the Italian torpedo boat service.

GENERAL CARRANZA

Mexican Constitutionalist Chief Facing Insurrection.

SEEKING SETTLEMENT

National Peril In Mexico to Be Averted.

El Paso special: General Francisco Villa is willing to cease fighting if Fernando Iglesias Calderon is made provisional president of Mexico and Carranza steps down and out. Replying to an appeal from Constitutionalist officers at Mexico City for peace, Villa made this declaration. Calderon was Mexican ambassador to France under Madero.

Mexico City special: General Obregon, who is reported to have been locked up at Chihuahua by General Villa, has returned to the city, but refuses to discuss his recent experiences further than to say that he has strong hopes of a peaceful settlement of Mexico's internal quarrels and that he believes a great national peril will be averted. Immediately upon his arrival here he had a long conference with General Carranza, after which an invitation was issued to Villa for a conference with the Carranza leaders at Agua Calientes. The appeal was to the patriotism of Villa's followers to avoid at this time an armed conflict which would mean the failure of the late revolution.

Washington special: Developments are coming fast in Mexico and they all point to the dwindling power and early overthrow of Carranza. Word has been received that General Natera, the commander of the Constitutionalist forces of the central division, with headquarters at Zacatecas, has notified Villa that he will support him in the present break. This information was regarded by Washington officials as very important. It means that Villa's army now has the way open for an advance with a single battle as far south as Zacatecas, which is within 300 miles of Mexico City.

With the news of Natera's desertion of Carranza also came the information that Carranza will attempt to appease Villa through action to be taken at the convention of the Constitutionlists in Mexico City on Oct. 1. This is the convention that Villa has declined to attend, but word has been received in Washington that the convention will be held and Carranza will retire as first chief and will not be a candidate for provisional president. Three men are under consideration. Two of these are Iglesias Calderon and Luis Cabrera, the latter having represented Carranza in Washington. All three of these men under consideration are civilians. It has been Villa's complaint that Carranza was seeking to establish a military government in Mexico City with himself, Carranza, as the head.

WITHOUT FIRING A GUN

Villa Enters Upon Peaceable Possession of Zacatecas.

El Paso, Tex., special: Zacatecas has been occupied by the troops of General Francisco Villa, who is planning for an advance upon San Luis Potosi as soon as he can move his men and artillery south. Zacatecas was held by Carranzista troops under General Paffio Natera, who is now in Mexico City and is said to be loyal to Carranza. When the troops learned of the advance of Villa's men from Torreon under General Maximo Garcia, they fled south to Aguas Calientes and Garcia occupied the city without a battle.

SHIPWRECKED MEN SAVED

Search Now Being Made For Others of Tahoma's Crew.

Washington special: Four officers and fifty-six men aboard the revenue cutter Tahoma when it went ashore on the western Aleutian Islands last week, have been picked up by the steamer Cordeva and survey ship Patterson, near Agattu island. Advances to revenue headquarters said search now was proceeding for twenty-three others from the Tahoma, who landed from boats on islands near by.

Notes of St. Rosa's Church.

The members of the Holy Name Society of St. Rosa's Catholic church will receive holy communion in a body at the 7:30 o'clock mass next Sunday morning.

The Forty Hours Devotion that occurs regularly every year at this church, will be held this year some time the latter part of the month of October.

The attendance at mass during week days has been rather gratifying and the same should keep showing a steady increase.

On Sunday, October 4th, the Peter's Pence Collection for the Holy Father will be taken up at all the masses. This money is used by the Pope of Rome in defraying expenses for the propagation of the faith.

Father Henry preached a very eloquent sermon at the high mass last Sunday of man's love to God, and of loving his neighbor as himself, and the same was attentively listened to and carried home with deep consideration.

Moore's Pat. Closed Sleeve Shirt

Patented Nov. 3, 1910

speaks for itself. Look at it. Full cut, made right, fast colors, best material in connection with the patent sleeve make it absolutely the BEST work shirt made. Twelve good reasons why the Patent Sleeve is better than the old-fashioned Open Sleeve and there are more.

Buttons up neatly, warm in winter; no vent to gap and let under-wear soil.

Buttons up neatly, warm in winter; no vent to gap and let under-wear soil.

1st—It is closed and will not rip or soil the under-wear.

2nd—If the button comes off it will not hang down in the way like an open sleeve.

3rd—It is adjustable, having two buttons on it.

4th—Wear it open and it is cool in the summer.

5th—Button up close and it is warm in the winter.

6th—Can wear it just as well open as closed.

7th—To roll up is simply to push it up and it will stay.

8th—Can shorten it by turning back the cuff or roll it to any desired length; no open end to drag it down.

9th—It is longer and made wider from the elbow down, which is very important, giving plenty of elbow room and wearing longer.

10th—It saves the "wash woman". No dirty streaks to rub out on under sleeve.

11th—No lost time with it—saves you enough time to pay for your shirts.

12th—It cannot get into a shape that will worry you. It is ALL satisfaction.

You can get your size in our patent sleeve; we make sizes to fit all up to size 19. Youths 12 to 14. Slims made 2 in. longer in skirt and 2 1/2 in. longer in the sleeves than our regular shirt. Made in all colors and weights of suitable goods for work or semi-dress shirt.

Don't fail to "catch on" to the patent sleeve shirt—you'll like it—and will never wear any other kind and don't forget the store that handles Moore's patent sleeve shirts—its progressive and surely handles the best of everything.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Garrison of the Modlin Fortress Brought Down a Zeppelin.

Warsaw special: A Zeppelin was shot down and its crew of German officers and air scouts was captured Sunday after a futile attack upon the Modlin fortress. Previously the balloon had dropped two bombs near the station of the railroad to Kalisz. Only one of these exploded and the damage was slight.

The garrison of Modlin had made careful preparation to receive any German aircraft. Guns had been trained and ranges ascertained. When the Zeppelin ventured within range it was made the target of concentrated fire. Within five minutes its envelop was pierced and it fluttered to earth. Those of the crew still alive were made prisoners.

A dispatch from Basle says a raid of the British aviators on the hangar at Dusseldorf resulted in a Zeppelin airship being injured to an unknown extent and a large machinery workshop destroyed.

BEST STORIES OF INCIDENTS OUT

Picturesque and Dramatic Scenes on Europe's Battlefields.

THE BIG WAR; OF THE ORDINARY

Humorous Side Lights on Great Struggle Found In the News.

MANY a paragraph in the war news from abroad is a story in itself, telling of dauntless courage in battle, and many a humorous incident relieves the grim picture of the awful conflict.

"The most romantic, dramatic and piquant episode that modern war can show," says a naval lieutenant in describing an episode in the Helgoland fight. His letter reads as follows:

"The Defender, having sunk an enemy, lowered a whaler to pick up her swimming survivors. Before the whaler got back an enemy's cruiser came up and chased the Defender, and thus she abandoned her whaler.

"Imagine their feelings--alone in an open boat without food, twenty-five miles from the nearest land and that land the enemy's fortress, with nothing but fog and foes around them!

"Suddenly a swirl alongside and up, if you please, pops his Britannic majesty's submarine E-4, opens his conning tower, takes them all on board, shuts up again, dives and brings them home 250 miles!"

Small Boy Saves Family.

Theodore Taperzer, nine years old, of Philadelphia arrived at the offices of the American relief committee in London in charge of a Hungarian widow and her six children, whom he had brought all the way from Budapest. From the Hungarian capital this boy had acted as guide and interpreter of the fatherless family.

Taperzer, who had been visiting relatives in Hungary, started to come out alone. At the railroad station in Budapest he met a family whose father, now dead, had been a naturalized American citizen. He took the Hungarian mother and her children under his care. On his arrival in London the boy drew a draft on his father in Philadelphia, which was promptly honored by the relief committee. He then acted as interpreter for the widow while she told her story and secured aid from the committee, after which he attended to the securing of steamship passage for his charges.

Feat of Lone Swordsman.

George Andre, France's foremost all around athlete, has been decorated with the military medal and promoted to be a sergeant, according to the Official Gazette, for a great feat of gallantry.

Andre, who holds the hundred meters world's record, while fighting in Lorraine with a company was surrounded by a large German detachment. The athlete, sweeping his heavy sword around his head like a flail, slew many Germans who were gathered around the standard.

He captured the standard and regained the French lines at his sprinter's gait under a hail of bullets.

Twenty Against 200.

La Liberte of Paris relates an incident on the battlefield at Compeigne in which a French lieutenant and nineteen cuirassiers attacked 200 dragoons of the German imperial guard and dashed right through them. They continued the fight in the streets of Remy and finally reached Paris after a series of hairbreath escapes. Three of the nineteen were killed, and five were made prisoners. The others passed through the German lines in disguise.

The party had dismounted at a farm outside Remy at 10 o'clock at night when they were cut off by a squadron of the imperial guard. The lieutenant consulted his men, and all agreed to try to break through the enemy. The guard gave way before their impetuous cries, and the fight was continued in the streets of Remy, where thirty of the enemy were slain.

Escaped In Disguise.

Unfortunately the little band got separated. One entered a house and concealed himself behind a pile of wood. Another, after dismounting and killing three of the opponents, jumped over a garden wall and hid. The others got into other houses.

In all cases the fugitives put on civilian clothes and remained hidden for two days while the Germans kept searching for them. The lieutenant was found in a marsh with two ribs broken and his shoulder out of joint. He was taken into a factory and was dressed as an overseer, and eventually, with the help of safe conduct, the whole eleven passed through the enemy's line and got to Paris.

In a trench outside the village of Nanteuil-le-Haudouin four dead German soldiers were found sitting with playing cards in their hands.

A shell burst over them and killed all during a game of pinochle.

"Snowstorm of Shells."

"It was a snowstorm of shells," one soldier said of a recent engagement. "We went forward, however. A shell fell a few paces from me and threw up a great column of earth, which covered me, getting into my eyes and mouth. Then we came under the machine gun fire. This was really terrible. We seemed to be in a furnace. The bullets screamed by and made fearful ravages. The dead and wounded lay all about, and mixed with them were wounded horses which struggled and screamed in agony. But in spite of all we held on. I do not think we were afraid at all."

Bravery Under Fire.

In the orders of the day made public at Bordeaux numerous cases of bravery are cited.

Private Philips of the Second battalion of riflemen during the battle ran out under fire to his captain, who was mortally wounded, and brought him in. Private Philips went eight times to the firing line under violent shelling to give water to the wounded, and he also assisted his commandant to rally riflemen dispersed by the enemy's fire.

Of all the wounded patients the best, say the doctors in the military hospitals in Paris, are the Turks. There is no limit to the pain they can endure.

Spartan Women.

Among the victims of the battle of Gumbinnen were the two grandsons of the famous Russian journalist, Katkoff.

It is related that when Mme. Katkoff was told her sons had fallen her first words were:

"Have we won the battle?"

Told yes, she said: "Then I don't regret my sons' death, since they were useful to their country."

Ignaz Reising and his wife, Sophie Reising, peasants residing in Geiselbach, Bavaria, sent their six sons and three sons-in-law into the war. When the soldiers went out somebody asked their mother why she did not cry like the other women present. "I wait till I have real cause for that," she answered.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Washes Dishes.

A caller at the American Red Cross hospital in Paris found Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt washing dishes in the scullery. No work is too trivial for the society leader, Paris reports, and her name is blessed in the Red Cross world.

A wounded Prussian officer was taken to a Petrograd hospital, where a nurse carefully dressed his wounds. The following day he ascertained that the nurse was none other than the grand duchess Olga Alexandrovna, the czar's sister.

It is reported from Kiev that Princess Helena Georgievna, duchess of Mechtenburg, and Princess Marina Petrovsky have entered the hospitals at Pokrovsky convent at Kiev and started work among the wounded.

Tried to Eat Boots.

Scores of wounded Germans are arriving at Dieppe from Senlis. Many of them were a week in the field without food. One poor fellow said they had eaten grass and even attempted to eat their straps and boots. They had no emergency rations and were nearly mad with thirst.

Oddities In the War News.

The Austrians report that Russians have done great execution with machine guns mounted in trees, which is a novelty in the style of mounting guns.

Two Americans arrived at Ostend battered and haggard, but wherever they met Germans the waving of the big American passport secured them politeness, they declared.

At Sottegheim they came upon some German officers in a wayside tavern. A lieutenant called for a song in English. One of the Americans obliged with "You Made Me Love You. I Didn't Want to Do It."

The lieutenant then said, "If you come from Brussels you must be hungry."

The officer disappeared and returned with arms laden with ten pounds of butter and a hundred eggs.

The United States diplomatic service, now a sort of handy man for all nations in Europe, has been asked by a circus agency to find "Teddy Bobs," a Briton, in Germany. If the fact he is eight feet tall and lame in the left leg does not aid in finding him, it is expected his appetite will, for he is one of the most prodigious eaters in Europe, and if not found will aid his country by reducing Germany's food supply.

Germans Sob; French Stoics.

There is one marked difference, wholly psychological, between the German and the French wounded, who are constantly arriving at Bordeaux, writes a correspondent.

Physically there is little difference between the German wounded soldier being carried by and his wounded French antagonist in a nearby cot--the bullet or shrapnel has torn the German's flesh no more cruelly than it has torn the Frenchman.

But almost all the German prisoners are suffering extremely from nervous exhaustion. Therefore the popular opinion of the outlander of the characteristics of the two is wholly reversed.

The French wounded, instead of showing signs of nervous excitement, are comparatively calm, whereas the wounded among the Germans, despite their reputed stoicism, spend the greater part of their waking hours sobbing piteously.

PEACE PRAYERS FOR CHURCH

Petitions to the Almighty to Put an End to War of the Nations.

PRESIDENT WILSON having issued a proclamation appointing Sunday, Oct. 4, as a day of prayer and requested "all God-fearing persons" to unite at their respective places of worship in supplication to Almighty God to restore concord among the nations now at war, the federal council of the churches of Christ in America and the Church Peace union unite in recommending that the president's proclamation be read in every church and that the whole day be given to intercession for the purposes named by the president.

Among the prayers for peace suggested for the day is this one by Bishop David H. Greer of New York:

O God, who hast made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on the face of the earth, and who in thy holy word hast taught us that One is our Father, even God, and that all we are brethren, we pray thee in this dark hour of international strife that thou wilt open the eyes of the people and those who in thy name are entrusted with the authority of governance to see and understand their right and true relation to thee and through thee to one another. Teach them by thy spirit that hatred and violence are not strength, but weakness; that the true safeguarding of a nation is not to be found in weapons of war, but in those eternal principles which make for righteousness and truth and brotherhood and peace. Give to those who shall suffer in the war which is raging now the consolations of thy grace. Heal the sick, comfort the wounded, minister to the dying and blind up the broken heart. Bring, we pray thee, to a speedy end this international strife, that the time when peace shall flourish out of the earth and all shall dwell together in unity and love and war shall be no more. We ask it in the name of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen!

Unity, Peace and Concord.

The following litany has been prepared by the Rev. W. T. Manning of Trinity church, New York:

Almighty God, we pray that it may please thee to give to all nations, especially those now engaged in warfare, unity, peace and concord. Almighty God, we pray that it may please thee to deliver us from all evil and mischief, from plague, pestilence and famine, from battle and murder and sudden death. May emperors, kings, presidents, serve the King of kings. We remember our representatives in state and civic affairs and pray that in all parliaments, councils and assemblies of men this day the divine ideas of justice, truth, peace, temperance and fraternal love be honored, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affection of sinful men, we beseech thee so to guide the hearts of thy servants to whom thou hast given the responsibilities of government that they may be found for the speedy restoration of just and honorable peace amongst all nations. We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Have mercy, O Lord, upon all the wounded and the suffering. Let thy grace be their comfort, although natural friends be far away. Raise them to health if it be good, but chiefly give them such faith and patience that they may glorify thee upon earth and, escaping safe from the assaults of Satan, may rest in peace and rise to partake of thy glory, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

O Lord Jesus, who hast said "Inasmuch as ye do it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye do it unto me," look upon those of thy servants who have been called by thee to tend the sick, the suffering and the wounded. Give them patience and tenderness, wisdom and truthfulness and the special guidance of thy Holy Spirit in their work, so that they may faithfully minister to those to whom thou shalt send them, in thee and for thee. And may they be found worthy at the last to receive thy eternal reward, for thine own merit's sake.

Privileges We Enjoy.

Heavenly Father, we pray thee that we may feel the shame with all Christians that in spite of our Lord's own power and presence in this world such strife is still possible; that our hearts may be touched with sympathy for all who suffer and with the desire to render our aid; that we may feel due thankfulness for the privileges we enjoy as citizens of this republic.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who saidst unto thy disciples, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you," regard not our sins, but the faith of thy church, and grant to all thy children throughout the whole world that peace and joy which is agreeable to thy will who livest and reignest God, forever and ever.

The Lord bless us and keep us; the Lord make his face to shine upon us; the Lord lift up his countenance upon us and give us peace now and forever. Amen.

"Blot Out All Hatred."

Prayer prepared by Julia G. Wales: O God and Father of all the nations of men, who hast set us in families and tribes upon the earth and through the love of parents and children, of sisters and brothers, hast created in our hearts the love of our neighbor, give us, we beseech thee, that peace which the world cannot give. By our love for our own land, O Lord, for our own kin, for our own tongue, for our own laws, for our own faith, for our rulers and leaders, for the hearth and shrine, for the hills and streams of our country, let us know and understand the love of the stranger for the land of his fathers; let us honor that love and revere it even as we would have him honor ours.

By thy mighty love, O Father, blot out all hatred from our hearts, all insincerity and self-seeking, all pride and vainglory, all desire for aught save the welfare of the human family. Give to us the utter humility of spirit which alone can discern how best to seek that universal welfare. None of us has clean hands, O Lord. We have all sinned before thee in times and ways without number. We have sought our own; we have oppressed the helpless. In bitter penitence we confess our sins; we beseech thee to remove our transgressions from us. Suffer them no longer to come between us and the knowledge of thy most holy love.

Though it be that we must suffer, grant, O God, grant we beseech thee, that thy truth be not darkened on the earth. By our stained fields and ruined cities, by the terrors of death, by the agony of the wounded, by the tears of the widow, by the bowed head of the aged and the desolation of little children, may we atone, O God. Out of our anguish bring peace. With our blood, if it must be, quench the fires of hatred forever. Let a new love be born, a love never yet known on the earth—the great love of a people for a people, of strong nation for strong nation, the chivalry of the strong to the weak, the trust of the weak in the strong. Give peace in our time, O God. Give peace in our time, O God. Give peace in our time, O God. May our prayers go up before thee continually until they become one voice, the voice of all nations. O Father of mankind, have mercy upon us for thy mercy's sake. Amen.

SUGGESTED SERVICES OCT. 4

Day Set For That Purpose by President Wilson in Proclamation.

"Before Thee In Shame."

From the Christian World Pulpit: Father of mankind, in whose hands is the destiny of men and nations, we bow before thee in shame and humiliation that the passions, the follies, the blindness, the wickedness, of men should strike athwart thy purpose that thy kingdom should come and thy will be done in earth as in heaven.

We beseech thee in thine infinite mercy to shorten the agony of the nations in deadly strife. Soon may the sword be sheathed, and may the hands that are lifted against each other in war soon clasp each other in lasting friendship. Out of the encircling gloom of war may thy light shine, and may men see more clearly than ever before that in thy peace and thine obedience is the weal of the nations as well as the rest of the soul.

We implore thee on behalf of the men in the field, of all the nations engaged in strife. Even while they are bravely doing their duty to their countries may they remember that they are Christians and that the honor of their religion as well as of their country is in their keeping. May those who fall in the field fall as men whose quenchless faith is in the "Captain of their salvation." For those who are wounded we pray that kind hearts and gentle and skillful hands may minister to them and soon restore them to health and strength.

The Divine Injunction.

We would pray for all who are taken prisoners that they may be kept and treated by captors who will remember him who bade us love our enemies, and may the captors treat the captives as they themselves wish to be treated.

For those whose hearts will bleed and whose homes will be shadowed by the loss of loved ones, most merciful Father, we would especially pour out our fervent petitions. In their sorrow may they feel that the compassionate Saviour is very near and very dear to them, and may their greatest comfort be in him who said, "I am the Resurrection and the Life; because I live ye shall live also."

Grant, O Heavenly Father, all wisdom to our rulers and governors, that they may wage war with the desire to effect a speedy and a lasting peace, when those who are now our enemies shall be again our friends, and may this war be the last between nations who call themselves Christian and who are all members of the one great family of the common Father.

We would offer a last petition for those who in our own and other countries are called upon to suffer hardship through the interruption of the peaceful industry. Grant them the grace of patience. Open the hearts and the hands of the stewards of thy wealth that they may help to the utmost of their power their less fortunate brothers and sisters. May our nation at this time be a united family, cheerfully bearing one another's burdens, and so fulfilling the law of Christ.

We ask all in his name and for his sake. Amen.

"Break Thou the Spell."

Walter Rauschenbusch, in prayers of the Social Awakening:

O Lord, since first the blood of Abel cried to thee from the ground that drank it this earth of thine has been defiled with the blood of man shed by his brother's hand, and the centuries sob with the ceaseless horror of war. Ever the pride of nations and the covetousness of the strong has driven peaceful nations to slaughter. Ever the songs of the past and the pomp of armies have been used to inflame the passions of the people. Our spirit cries out to thee in revolt against it, and we know that our righteous anger is answered by thy holy wrath.

Break thou the spell of the enchantments that make the nations drunk with the lust of battle and draw them on as willing tools of death. Grant us a quiet and steadfast mind when our own nation clamors for vengeance or aggression. Strengthen our sense of justice and our regard for the equal worth of other peoples and races. Grant to the rulers of nations faith in the possibility of peace through justice and grant to the common people a new and stern enthusiasm for the cause of peace. Bless our soldiers and sailors for their swift obedience and their willingness to answer to the call of duty, but inspire them none the less with a hatred of war, and may they never for love of private glory or advancement provoke its coming. May our young men still rejoice to die for their country with the valor of their fathers, but teach our age nobler methods of matching our strength and more effective ways of giving our life for the flag.

O thou strong Father of all nations, draw all thy great family together with an increasing sense of our common blood and destiny, that peace may come on earth at last and thy sun may shed its light rejoicing on a holy brotherhood of peoples.

Telephone in His Mausoleum.

Martin Sheets has ordered a telephone in his new $8,000 mausoleum in the Highland Lawn (Indiana) cemetery. He will pay rent far enough in advance always to cover a few months beyond his death. Some years ago, when Sheets had a monument erected at the grave of his father, he made a statement of what he paid for the monument and the amount it cost him cut in granite.

To Den Cotton Gowns to Aid Planters.

Mrs. Annie Kincaid Dent of Yazoo City, La., has appealed to women of the south to aid cotton planters by wearing cotton gowns. More than a score of New Orleans women noted for their gowns have agreed to discard silks and fine clothes for cotton. The movement promises to be widespread.

STRIKING USE OF FLOUNCING.

Machine embroidery flouncing in colors on a cotton crape is beautifully developed in this afternoon frock for a fashionable summer toilet. The Vogue for ribbon is indicated in the skirt and the sash, which is draped generously down the back.

Important to All Women

Readers of This Paper.

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores.

KITCHEN SINKS.

They Are Low Yet Because They Had to Be Low Originally.

In a recent issue of the Survey the question why kitchen sinks have been made so low was discussed. No one seemed able to explain. Finally a certain maker discovered that the original sinks were made when the washing of dishes and other sink work was done in wooden tubs with high sides. Such a tub when used in a high sink came up too far, so the sink was made low. Furthermore, as running water and fixed faucets had not long been made, the tub had to be lifted out of the sink and the lower the sink the lighter the lift.

Through improvements in faucets, dishpans and other accessories of kitchen sinks have been made no one has seemed to realize that the sink could be improved by raising. So women were—and are—compelled to endure discomfort when doing their ordinary household work.

"There may be a certain percentage of inconvenience to be reached before the human mind grasps the fact that something must be altered," remarks the Journal of the American Medical Association.

"The wise inventor attains a reputation for brilliancy by making his invention before the need becomes obvious to others."

London's Moated House.

The bishop of London inhabits the only moated house in London. The grounds of Fulham palace, thirty-five acres in extent, are entirely surrounded by a moat constructed by the Danish army which encamped here in 879. According to a local historian, "The Danes as winter came on found the high tides encroaching seriously on their position, and not liking to leave the river and run the risk of being cut off from their ships they threw up a bank with a ditch along the river bank of their army and further fortified their position by carrying the ditch round the whole camp. The Danish army gone, it was not likely that any bishop would go to the expense of filling up the moat." The water is now regulated by sluice gates built during the episcopacy of Bishop King, who was appointed in 1611.—London Chronicle.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"My attention was first called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as twelve years ago. At that time I was seriously ill with summer complaint. One dose of this remedy checked the trouble," writes Mrs. C. W. Florence, Rockfield, Ind. For sale by all dealers.

A SOLAR ECLIPSE.

When Totality Occurs Nature Takes on an Awesome Aspect.

A total eclipse of the sun is a wonderful sight. Where the eclipse is a partial disk of the moon will creep across the face of the sun little by little, but will never completely obscure the orb. But where "totality" occurs the sun at a given moment will be entirely obliterated and the inhabitants of the regions across which the black band will stretch will perceive the most wonderful phenomenon known to astronomers—the display of the "corona" of the sun.

Great waves of incandescent gas hundreds of thousands of miles long, reaching out from the sun into the ether, will be perceived. The countryside will take on a sinister, night gray color, and tints of nature will pale and deepen as at twilight, the temperature will diminish sensibly, the birds, believing night has come, will cease their song and seek their nests. A person who has never seen this strange manifestation of nature cannot form any idea of its awesome aspect.

This eclipse is a recurring phenomenon. At the end of every period of eighteen years and eleven days the moon comes between the earth and the sun at just such an angle that the sun's light is completely shut off from a portion of the world and partially shut off from a much larger part.—New York World.

A BILLION DOLLARS.

The Time It Would Take an Expert to Count Them Singly.

I wonder if we realize when we talk of a billion dollars what an enormous sum of money it means?

We all know how rapidly an expert counter of coins will manipulate them. You can scarcely follow the motion of his fingers as he shifts the coins from one pile to another and counts them. The treasury experts will count 4,000 silver dollars in an hour and keep it up all day long, but that is their limit.

Working eight hours a day, then, an expert counter of coins will count 32,000 silver dollars in a day, but how long will it take him at that rate to count $1,000,000? Thirty-one days.

But that is only the beginning of the measurements of great figures, for if this same man were to go on counting silver dollars at the same rate of speed for ten years he would find that he had only counted 100,000,000 of them and that to count $1,000,000,000 would require 102 years of steady work at the rate of eight hours a day during every working day of every one of the 102 years.—O. P. Austin, Former Chief of Bureau of Statistics.

SCIENCE'S LATEST POLAR WEAPONS

New Devices Carried by the Shackleton Expedition.

UNIQUE MOTOR SLEDGES.

Two of the Five Taken on Antarctic Quest Have Air Propellers—Enough Specially Prepared Food Packed in Sausage Skins to Last Through the 1,700 Mile Trip.

Air propelled motor sledges mounted on flat runners like skis form the main reliance of the antarctic expedition headed by Sir Ernest Shackleton, which is on its way to explore the great continent that surrounds the south pole. A writer in Popular Mechanics declares that in this and many other respects the expedition is better equipped with modern devices than any previous body of polar explorers has ever been.

Details of food supply, shelter and provisions for the general health and comfort of the members of the party have been worked out with scientific care, tested in the snowfields of northern Norway and pronounced perfect.

Five motor sledges will be taken. One of these has a fifty-five horsepower gasoline engine, another a forty horsepower. These two have air propellers, but for use against head winds they are also equipped with positive drive mechanism in the form of toothed drums attached at the rear to engage the ice and snow. In the extremely low temperatures of the antarctic the snow becomes as loose as dry sand, so these sledges are mounted on flat, skidlike runners to prevent them from stalling.

Result of a Seven Day Test.

In a seven day test in Norway one of these air propelled sledges, carrying six men, towed another sledge weighing 400 pounds and carrying two men, at a speed of from fifteen to twenty miles an hour. Only a thirty horsepower motor was used instead of the larger ones that have since been installed, with which a speed of twenty-two miles an hour up a 10 per cent grade with three men on board has been made.

Two other sledges have the positive drive only and are expected to cover about fifty miles a day each as against the 75 to 100 miles of the aero sledges. The engines of these are water cooled, and the water jackets are piped to steam cooking appliances, so that food may be heated while on the march.

Scientifically Devised Rations.

The food problem of the Shackleton expedition is a particularly difficult one. Food supplies for the entire journey of 900 miles from Weddell sea to the pole and 800 miles from the pole to Ross sea must be taken along, whereas most polar explorers are able to make caches of food for use on the return journey. So a scientifically devised ration, on which the members of the party have already subsisted for days at a time, has been prepared and enough of it packed in sausage skins for easier transportation to last through the 1,700 mile trip.

Each man will receive thirty-six ounces of food daily. Instead of the three pounds which is the average consumption. In this will be six ounces of lard, four ounces of sugar and two ounces of a mixture of dried milk, protein and oats. The rest of the ration consists of Brazil nuts, almonds and beechnuts mixed with oil and dried milk. The fat content of the ration is larger than the normal for temperate climates, since the low temperature will place a severe strain on the heat-producing elements of the body, which can only be kept up to normal by plenty of fat foods.

UNCLE SAM SOCKS ABROAD.

Patterned After the American Flag and Sold in London.

Socks patterned after the design of the American flag are on sale in London. One purveyor asserted that these Uncle Sam socks were meant to establish the identity of Americans going on continental missions.

Stripes run from top to bottom of the socks, with the exception of three rows of stars on a blue field just above the ankle. It was argued by one plausible merchant that no passport would be needed for the wearer of such a creation. Low shoes must be worn to get the proper effect.

I. B. RICHARDSON
GARFIELD KENTUCKY

MR. SCHOPP WRITES OF HIS EXPERIENCES IN THE WAR ZONE

I left Louisville, accompanied by my wife, July 11 for Washington, Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York. We stopped in this city long enough to take in the principal points of interest and sailed July 18 on the great steamer "Imperator" for Europe. The Imperator is one of the largest steamers now afloat and large enough to lodge between 4000 and 5000 passengers comfortably. It is a floating palace, with every comfort that human genius can provide; elevators, tennis, golf courts, roof garden, swimming pool, etc.

After a very pleasant ocean trip we arrived in Hamburg July 25. We found Hamburg a great commercial city with lots of places of interest, and we first of all went to the celebrated "Hagenbeck's Wild West Animal Palace" which is located in the country and is a perfect imitation of the wilds of Africa—lions, tigers, and all other animals running around loose in the jungle, but cannot get outside and do any harm. We left Hamburg and arrived in Berlin July 28 by rail, stopping at the Hotel "Kaiserhof." With the assistance of a guide and an automobile we went to Potsdam, Charlottenburg, Sanssouci and other places of historic interest and found Berlin the city of monuments, which are placed everywhere.

RUMORS OF WAR

At that time were rumors out that war would be declared if Germany's ultimatum would not be accepted by England, France and Russia. We left Berlin on the 30th of July and arrived the same day at Koenigsberg, our principal object point, to visit my mother and sister. They were at the depot and received us, and our joy was mutual. Though mother is 89 years old, she is so well preserved that she looks more like a woman of 60. While we were at Koenigsberg, war was proclaimed and martial law followed at once. My passport from 1885 I had with me, was not considered, and the Consul refused to issue me a new one, and, without a pass it was dangerous to walk the streets. After threatening the Consul I would wire to Washington, and, showing him my certificate of the Masonic lodge and a Shriner degree, he finally gave me a pass. We remained in our room several days watching the passing of the infantry, cavalry and artillery. The noise day and night was enough to make any man nervous. We were held up several times by the police to show our pass and came very near being arrested at one time as English spies.

Koenigsberg is one of the large cities in Prussia, about 150 miles from the Russian border, and therefore a principal point in this war. We concluded that it would be best to get out of this place, the sooner, the better, as the moving of the soldiers to the Russian frontier required all of the rolling stock of the rail roads. We left by the first opportunity we got for a train and returned to Berlin. In ordinary times it takes eight hours to get to Berlin from Koenigsberg, but our train took 32 hours.

EXPERIENCES TRAVELING

When passing a bridge, all window shades had to be lowered and we were ordered to kneel down; they were afraid someone might throw a bomb into the train, or use dynamite. Though we bought first-class tickets for a compartment for two, there were eight of us in that narrow place, and could not kick, as they said, we should be thankful to be on a train. No Pullman or Diner was on those trains and fasting was our chance.

We arrived in Berlin exhausted, and after resting a day, went to Ambassador Mr. Gerard to have our pass restamped. A large crowd of Americans were there waiting for the same purpose as we. Mr. Gerard is surely a hard-worked man and his good wife assists him. With all this strenuous work, M. Gerard does all in his power to help and assist marooned Americans in Berlin, and too much praise can be bestowed upon him and his wife for their good work. We found Berlin upon our return going crazy on the war, marching and singing national airs, and anyone that would speak French, Russian or English was in danger of his life. It was pantomime all over the city and strictly military rule. We thought it was best for us to get out of Berlin—but how? Some advised us to remain, others to go to France and sail from Havre, but, calling again upon the Ambassador, Mr. Gerard advised us to leave Berlin as soon as possible for Holland and while still here to pin American flags on our clothes. We took that advice and having our Pass stamped once more, left for Rotterdam, where we arrived in the morning at one o'clock, and finding all hotels and boarding houses crowded, we left this city at 7 p. m. by rail for Flushing and from there by boat to London.

ARRIVES IN LONDON

We arrived in London the next day in the evening. We spent a few days in that city seeing points of special interest and came in contact with lots of Americans waiting to get a steamer for New York. The crowds at the ticket offices were immense, but we received no guarantee when a steamer would sail. By chance we heard that the steamer "Lapland," the first one, would sail from Southampton September 1. We took a chance and left London for Southampton and fortunately secured a cabin for two on the "Lapland." There were no such accommodations as we had on the "Imperator," but we were glad to be on the home stretch again.

Our trip over here was fair, but we met large icebergs, and were at one time near the place where the "Titanic" went down. We surely thanked the good Lord when we passed the Statue of Liberty in the Park of New York and landed in God's only country—America.

German Winos Surprised Berlin. "The Russians," writes a correspondent of the New Rotterdamische Courant in Berlin, "are very much better than they were thought to be. One hears that on every side. From Austria one hears that the way the men are clothed and shod is splendid. Alcohol has been forbidden throughout the Russian army, and a strong hand is being kept on the soldiers."

Bread From Tulip Bulbs.

On account of the scarcity of wheat in Holland the Association of Dutch Bakers has sanctioned the use of a so called "tulip bread." In which one-third of the flour used is made from ground tulip bulbs. The bread is said to be very nourishing, and the war ministry has recommended its use in the army.
